

I want to maintain Indiana's more restrictive do not call law rather than replacing it with the federal law. It has been so much better without telephone sales interruptions.